

BD 7550 Revival of the spirit Address of God

The word of God is presented to you as pure as it flows from the mouth of God He speaks to you and you hear Him, you can hear His voice, because He speaks through a human being to all of you who desire to hear Him You are in contact with the Eternal Word, because the Word itself leans towards you and desires entrance into your hearts. The Eternal Deity, the highest spirit in infinity, empties Himself to you, He makes His will known to you, He introduces you to truth, He gives you knowledge and He also gives you the right understanding for it But He demands one thing: that you listen to Him with an awakened spirit, otherwise everything that is presented to you remains incomprehensible to you.

So God demands from you that you awaken your spirit to life, and that means as much as that you are willing to come close to God for the time being. And when He then makes His will known to you through His word, then you will understand this will of His and strive to fulfill it you will make an effort to live in love And then also through love the spirit in you will be awakened to life, and then everything will be understandable to you that is imparted to you through the Word of God And so you must first be given the opportunity to listen to His word, so that you are stimulated to seek the approach to Him, so that His will is made known to you, the fulfillment of which then results in the awakening of the spirit.

And only then further knowledge can be offered to you in such a way that you understand it and it can bring salvation to your soul. And then you will also remain in constant connection with the word from eternity because you will then desire His address and God will not deny Himself to you He will speak to you directly or through His messengers who bring His word to you. And those people will always feel touched by God's address who have already given life to their spirit They will recognize the Father's voice immediately, and they will be delighted to be addressed by Him.

Nevertheless, the word of God shall also be brought to the still unawakened, they shall also hear His voice, and they will feel addressed or remain untouched according to their will but the grace has been offered to them, which they must use to also experience their blessing. But that the Eternal Love condescends to speak to you men is an exceedingly great grace, which you all do not utilize enough, because to hear the heavenly Father's voice is the most beautiful thing for your soul, which can be offered to it on earth.

God speaks with His creature, the Father speaks with His child His word sounds clear and pure, and every word from His mouth is truth, which will always make man happy as long as it remains unadulterated and pure. That is why only the awakened spirit can hear His voice and recognize it as His voice, while the unawakened can well be offered the same from outside and lack the understanding for it until he too has awakened the spirit in him to life. But then he is blissfully happy when he recognizes the voice of the Father and feels addressed by Him.

And so you are all addressed by God, if you desire to hear Him from the heart, because then His word is imparted to you, always in the way it is beneficial for you and your souls, how you adjust yourselves and give Him the opportunity that He can address you whether by hearing or reading, or by the inner word which may be heard by a man in direct intercourse with God, if it be the will of God that he receive His word for himself and his fellow men, to spread it and to bring it to all those who likewise desire to hear God The will and desire for His address also secures this for you, for God reveals Himself to everyone who loves Him and keeps His commandments

Amen
